

Our Mission:

Adults/families will travel to Vicente Guerrero, Mexico in October, 2014.

Our Building Team mission: to construct 20' x 22' houses for families and work on a variety of community projects.

Our Orphanage Team mission: to volunteer at various jobs at the orphanage and participate in daily Child Evangelism Outreach in the local community.

Cultural experiences and outreach activities are part of both of our mission experiences.

Trip Includes:

- Airfare: Minneapolis to San Diego, CA
- One night motel lodging in San Diego (four people to a room)
- Vans to mission location
- Work with children and families
- Lodging and all meals in Mexico
- Bunk beds with comfortable mattresses
- Fiesta dinner the last night
- Blessings Galore!

Our Destination:

Vicente Guerrero, a small community in Mexico, is located 178 miles south of the border, 4.5 hours from Tijuana and three miles east of the Pacific Ocean. It has general stores, pharmacies, a post office, and a bank. Temperatures in October are 50° - 75°F, rainfall is about 2" per year.

Baja Builders

2014

October 11-18, 2014

(Saturday - Saturday)

Vicente Guerrero
Baja, Mexico

Our Tasks: (choose one from these options)

Home Building: Show God's love by building houses for families. Our labor of love may be the first home ever for some of these families! No building experience necessary.

Orphanage: Share God's love with local children and work at various tasks at the orphanage home and medical center. Let us know if you have professional medical skills.

Activities:

During the trip we . . .

- build relationships
- attend local worship services
- learn about people of Mexico
- visit migrant camps
- take part in outreach
- experience the culture
- shop at a local market
